

How To Study The Bible

- The first step in studying the Bible is to have a daily _____.
 - We need manna for today. (Exodus 16:12-31)
- _____ reading.
 - Here is one example of simultaneous reading. Divide the Bible into 4 sections
 - Genesis to Malachi (except for Psalms to Song of Solomon)
 - Psalms to Song of Solomon
 - Matthew to John
 - Acts to Revelation
 - Mark the places you are reading with a paper clip
 - Divide the number of pages in the Old Testament by the number of days in a year.
 - Read a Psalm and Proverbs each day.
 - Plan to read through the New Testament every 60 days.
 - The Old Testament is _____ and _____.
 - The Psalms, and Song of Solomon are the _____.
 - Proverbs = _____.
 - New Testament Gospels are the picture of _____.
 - The letters are _____ for life.
- Once you embark upon simultaneous reading, you will see what I describe as _____.
- The second step to studying the Bible is _____.
 - Here are some insights on Biblical interpretation.
 - _____. How is a scripture used in a passage.
 - _____. What is the literal meaning of the Word in the original language. 1 Cor. 3:17
 - _____. How is the word used elsewhere in the Bible.
 - _____.
 - _____. What word pictures are being used.
- As we meditate, we are _____. Romans 12:1-2
- Some study aids.
 - Electronic aids which are very useful are as follows: e-sword, www.studylight.org, www.jewishencyclopediaonline.com. All of these resources are free.

How To Study The Bible

- Another reference which is invaluable is Complete Word Study of the New and Old Testaments. More detailed than a Strong's Concordance.
- _____ is also very important.
 - It tracks _____.
 - It is a place to _____.
 - It is _____. If you don't use manna, it will rot.
 - You should always have something around you to write down what God tells you.
 - I divide my insights/ thoughts into three sections; a general concordance, personal journal and a dream journal.
 - Many times God speaks to us in _____. It is then our responsibility to pray/meditate and receive the whole from God.

Answer Key

Routine, simultaneous, history, example, love chapters, wisdom, christ, our instructors, linear truth, context, word meanings, cross references, repetition, symbolism, journaling, progress, remember, good stewardship.